that is the title and the beginning of the inheritance for Homewood.
We are the heritage of future years.
We have the opportunity to pass down order or chaos, wisdom or mockery of wisdom, concern or apathy. As we build we have one advantage; we, as individuals, are not without past experiences. We know of troubles, but we have ideals already formed to conquer these troubles.
But whatever we build, we cannot rely on it to bless itself. We must bless it ourselves, hallow it, change it, make it, or this school will not work.
The annual is the culmination of the actions and the ideals of us students. Our actions and ideals are

Shades Valley

Homewood High Patriots played their first game September 1, 1972. Their opponents were the Shades Valley Mounties. The Mounties scored first on a 22-yard Mark Merrit run. The extra point attempt was good and Valley led 7-0. The Patriots drew blood on the first play of the second quarter when Peter Braasch broke loose for 50 yards. Randy Dickenson's point after touchdown was good and the game was tied at 7-7. As the first half ended, Dickenson put a 40-yard field goal through the uprights to give the Patriots a three-point margin. However, the second half was fatal for the Patriots as the Mounties scored on two passing plays. Billy Holmes was given the Fighting Patriot Award. Final score was Valley 20, Homewood 10.

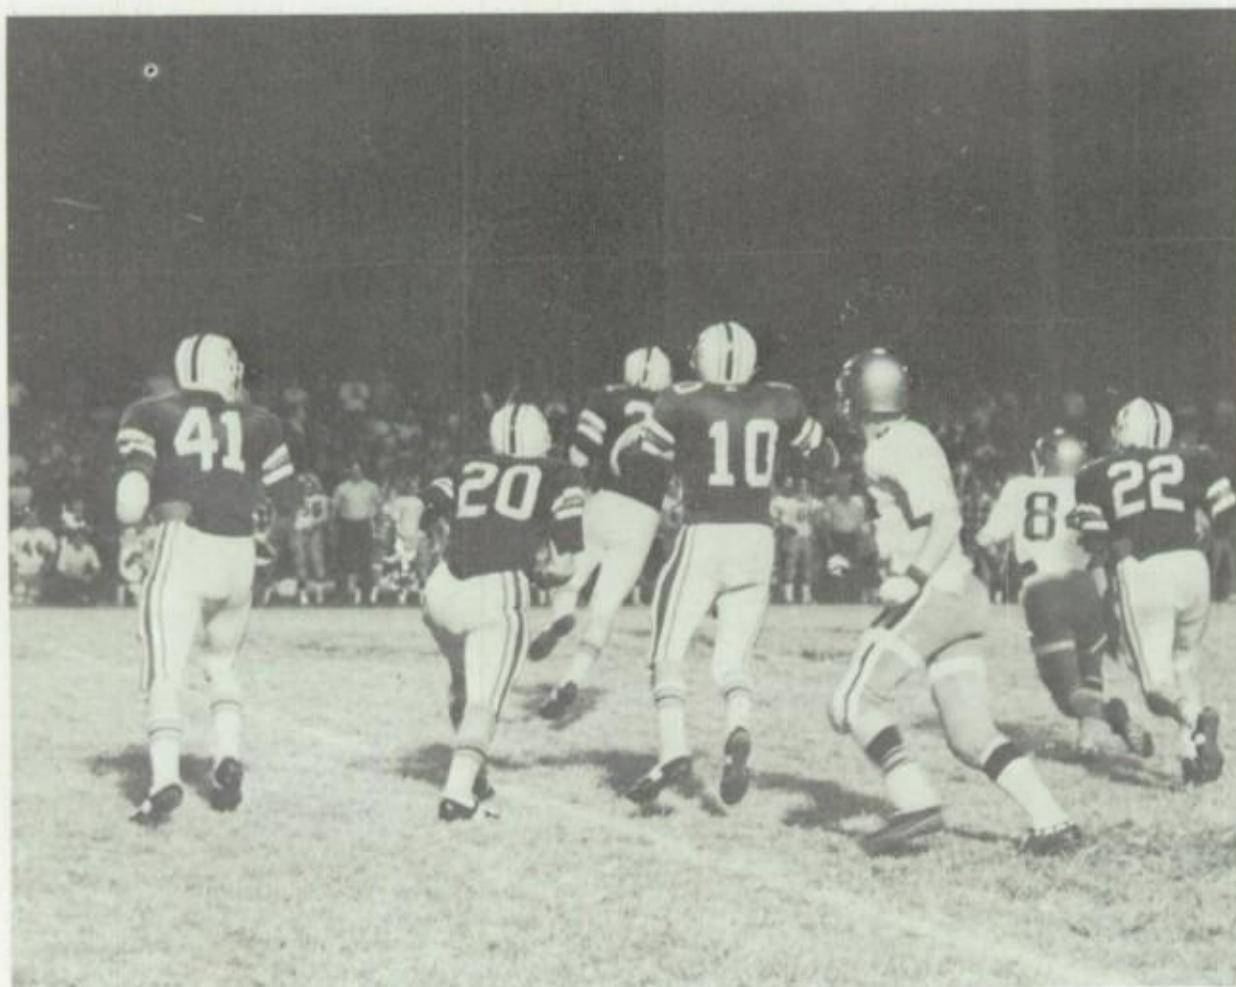

Emotions grew tense in the first few minutes of the game as Holt returned the opening kickoff 95 yards. The Patriots came back, however, with a steady 68-yard drive which ended in a Legg to Powell T.D. pass. The P.A.T. was good and the score was tied 7-7. Late in the second quarter a Nelson punt was fumbled by the Holt Ironmen and Randy Smith recovered for the Patriots. Nine plays later Legg sneaked over for the score. Chris Moore was the workhorse on five of those nine plays. The P.A.T. was no good and the Patriots led 13-7 at the half. In the second half the Ironmen scored on the first set of downs. The extra point try failed and it was 13-13. A Randy Dickenson field goal meant the difference in the 4th quarter as the Patriots won 16-13. Charles Mizerany was given the Fighting Patriot Award.

Holt

Tarrant

The Patriots' third game was a close one. The teams were well balanced and there was no score until Randy Galbraith recovered a Tarrant fumble and Murray Legg scampered fifteen yards for the T.D. Randy Dickenson's P.A.T. gave Homewood a 7-0 halftime lead. Tarrant scored and the kick was short. It looked good for Homewood until Tarrant's tailback scored with twenty-six seconds left. It ended in a disappointing 13-7. Fighting Patriot Award went to Randy Galbraith.

John Carroll

The Patriots journeyed to Carroll Field with a 1-2 record. They had visions of balancing that record, but those visions were shattered in the hands of a fine Cavalier team. Patriots' scores came in the first and third quarters. Kenny Turner charged over the goal line, midway into the first quarter to give the Red, White, and Blue its first score. It was late in the third quarter before the Patriots scored again. This time it was Ray Powell cashing in to add six more points. The Homewood Patriot defense gave a fine showing though the scoring did not indicate it. The game was mainly a defensive battle. Rod Nelson had a punting average of 47 yards on four punts and kept the Cavaliers backed up. Alan Hardin was given the Fighting Patriot Award. Final score was 19-14.

Midfield

Coach Bresler took his Patriot team into those other Patriots' territory and emerged victorious. The Homewood Patriots showed superiority over Midfield, who are also known as the Patriots. Braasch scored twice in the first quarter behind the blocking of Bryan McFee and David Barnett. Then in the second quarter behind a tough offensive line, Mike Akins spurted in for a third score. The second half was a total defensive battle which resulted in no scoring. The game ended 19-0. Randy Galbraith received the Fighting Patriot Award.

Erwin

Homewood entered the Erwin game with a record of 3-3. For the most part, the game against Erwin developed into a defensive struggle. Late in the second quarter the Eagles took the first and only scoring initiative of the night. Erwin booted the P.A.T. and took the lead 7-0. The conflict was a stalemate until the next to last play in which Homewood possessed the ball. The disputed play saw Ray Powell catch a pass in the end zone and be ruled out by an official. As a result, there was a heated discussion between coaches, officials, and players. The officials won, however, and the Erwin Eagles emerged as 7-0 victors. Ray Powell was given the Fighting Patriot Award.

Patriots Rip Rebels In First Homecoming

Homewood High School recorded history October 6 of this the year 1972 by winning their first Homecoming. Homewood scored on its first possession by driving 60 yards in eight plays. The drive was climaxed by a two-yard Dean Black run. Randy Dickenson's point after was good. Vestavia came back and charged to the Homewood two-yard line, but were denied a score by such Patriot defensive standouts as Randy Galbraith, Don Campbell, Charles Mizerany, Daryl Brown, and Charles Boyd.

Homewood scored again in the third quarter when David Fleisher took the ball over from the five-yard line. Murray Legg passed to Billy Holmes for two points. This gave the Patriots a comfortable 15-point lead. Vestavia scored in the final quarter, but failed in their attempt for two points. The Patriots had captured their first Homecoming title with a 15-6 victory over the Rebels. Peter Braasch was awarded the Fighting Patriot Award.

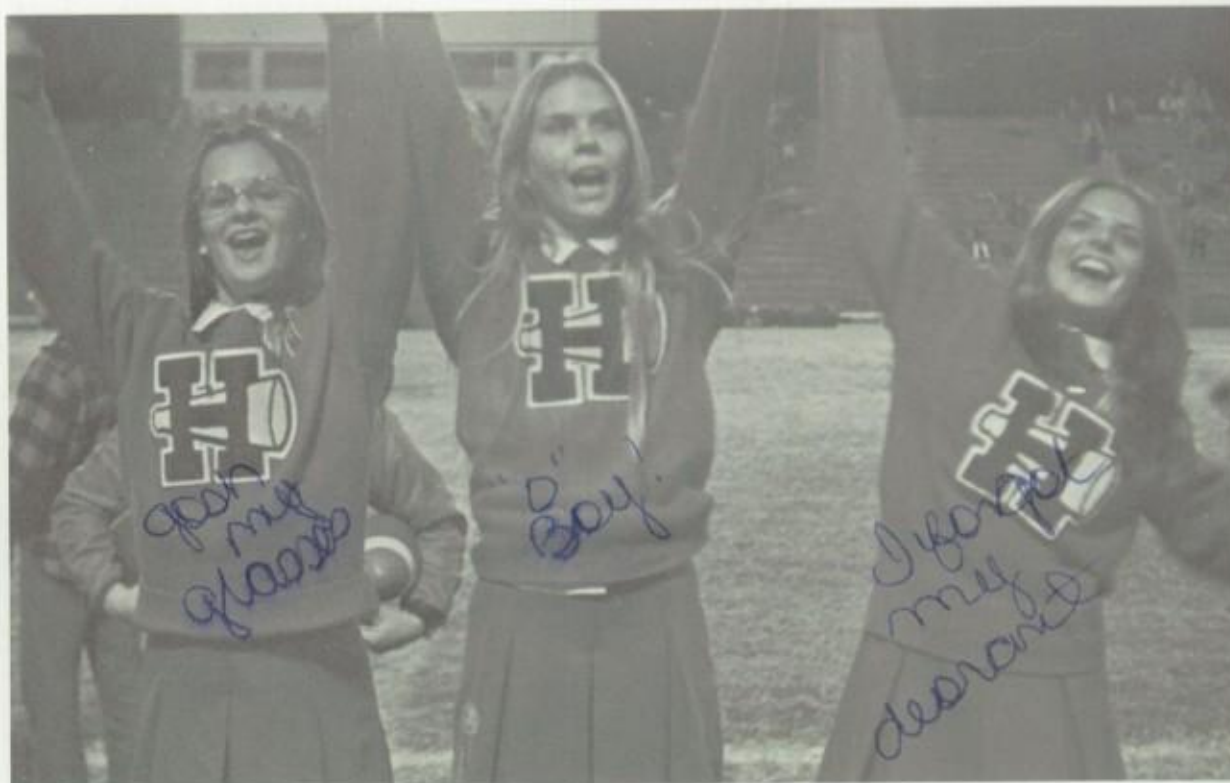

Tuscaloosa County

The Patriots took an early lead, which they never yielded, to defeat Tuscaloosa County 21-13. Alan Hardin passed to Billy Holmes for a 31-yard scoring play. Dickenson kicked the P.A.T. through and Homewood jumped out in front 7-0. Peter Braasch scored next and gave the Patriots a 14-point margin. The last Homewood drive covered 72 yards. Ricky Powers cashed in and gave the Patriots a 21-13 victory. Powers was awarded the Fighting Patriot Award.

Emma Sansom

Homewood defeated Emma Sansom 48-12. The Patriots took an early 21-0 lead in the first quarter, two scores being passes from Murray Legg to Alan Hardin and Ray Powell respectively. One of those scores was set up by a George Dreher interception. Hardin scored on an eight-yard run as the half ended. Powers, Black, and Nelson all scored in the second half to give the Patriots a 48-12 victory over the Rebels. Dickenson hit on six of seven extra point attempts. Murray Legg was given the Fighting Patriot Award.

Mt. Brook

Homewood finished its season with a 6-0 victory over the Mt. Brook Spartans. Homewood, winning five games of the last six, emerged with one of the best records any new school has held in the state. The Patriots' score was set up when Billy Holmes passed 30 yards complete to Ray Powell. Alan Hardin capped the drive for the points. The defensive unit consisted of Randy Galbraith, Dean Snow, Paul Dougherty, Charles Mizerany, Charles Boyd, Mike Haltiwanger, Peter Braasch, Ricky Powers, Alan Hardin, Billy Holmes, and Wayne Turnipseed. Rod Nelson's punting also kept the Spartans backed up, the longest of which was 48 yards. Peter Braasch and Mike Haltiwanger received the Fighting Patriot Award.

STONEWALL WAS HIS NAME...

He earned it on Henry House Hill, near Manassas Junction, in July of 1861. The largest American armies ever assembled, Union and Confederate, jockeyed for position on Bull Run Creek and around the Manassas rail facilities; over many square miles of Virginia countryside. The Federal army crashed across Bull Run Creek in an effort to break the Confederate center and begin a drive on Richmond. Blocking their way, on Henry House Hill, were 9,800 infantrymen under Jackson, Bee, Barlow, and Wade Hampton. 25,000 Federal infantrymen stormed the hill. The 33rd Virginia charged from its pine brush cover and wiped out a Federal battery which had been raking the defending Confederates with cannister and ball. Jackson guided his men into the fray, and at the height of the action, when Bee's men were being pushed from the hill, the rallying cry was heard, "Look, there stands Jackson like a stone wall. Rally behind the Virginians, men!" From that time forward, men forgot Jackson's name was Thomas Jonathan, and he was ever afterward called "Stonewall."

In 1866, the Stonewall Insurance Company was founded in the name of the man who refused to yield his ground. At this time, we pause to look back on over a century of service to Americans all over the land. A land made stronger and richer by the events of that July afternoon on Henry House Hill.

A POLLUTION SOLUTION

National Tire & Salvage operates nine cranes and a fleet of trucks, using NAPA parts exclusively. Pictured above is crane operator Willie Beaman and GPC salesman Roland Jackson on the right. We'd like to say thanks to all the folks at National Tire & Salvage. We appreciate your business.

Jim Palmer, owner of National Tire & Salvage, is doing something about pollution in the "Magic City."

In the photo above, Jim demonstrates how much smoke is created by burning five automobiles. At the same time he is burning five automobiles in the gas-fired incinerator in the center of the picture, which is, as you can see, almost smokeless! This is a real step forward in the fight against air pollution.

The Homewood Park and Recreation Board members have committed themselves to provide the best recreational program possible for the citizens of Homewood; to provide trained personnel so that each individual may have an opportunity for a more richer life through recreation; and to provide adequate adult facilities that are available now in order to enjoy skills developed during the adolescent stage. Recognizing that not all students are capable of varsity competition, nor blessed with outstanding athletic talent, the Board has provided recreation activities for the less skilled participants. From pre-schooler to the senior citizen, both boys and girls, young and old, it is the Park Board's responsibility to see that they at least have an opportunity to participate. If we make Homewood a better place in which to live through recreation, then we have served.

We invite you to enjoy your Parks.

LIFE'S LESSON

*If I can stand in these empty halls,
Hear the echo of busy classrooms
And recall . . . one brief moment — I understood life*

Then the time I spent, was worth living

*If I can stand in this empty classroom
See the images of friends and teacher
And say I remember a moment of happiness
Then the time I gave, was worth giving*

*If I can stand in this auditorium
Feel the splendor of symbolic graduation
And know, if only for a moment, success was at my side*

Then the time I spent, was worth living

*If I can stand up as a man
Look at my life
And say I found what I was searching for
Then the life I spent, was worth spending . . .*

Rod Nelson

We, the Senior Class of 1973, being of sound and disposing minds, do make, publish and declare the following to be our Last Will and Testament.

Renée Alsbrooks leaves her ability to learn the "wiggles" to next year's Star Spangled Girls. Robert Crump and Tim Stout leave all their hidden talents to anyone who can find them. Mike Hall leaves his ability to fix ceiling panels and electrical outlets to Mr. Lawley. Karen Meshad leaves her ability to understand jokes to next year's dumb blonde (or brunette). Gary Huffman leaves a stack of dirty lunch trays to Wally Freeman. Martha Zeiger leaves three ace bandages, a finger splint and a nose cast to next year's acrobatics star. Marci Carpenter, Mary Collier, Valerie Kennedy, Rus Dowda, and Julie Knighton bequeath their Samford Library cards to the English Department. Don Campbell leaves his Captain Marvel suit and Chump statue to Zeke Godshaw, who is most likely to succeed. (at what? ed.) JoAnna Harding leaves her hair and hot pants to Mrs. Linder. Alvin Lee leaves a picture of himself and a list of his senior accomplishments to the Annual Staff. Mary Callies leaves a good "Word" to the school. Buggy Rives leaves Steve to all the girls. Chris Moore leaves his charm and good looks to Tim Lunceford, Ray Powell, Mike Renta, Ricky Kitchens . . . (hope there is enough to go around . . . ed.) Kim Smallwood leaves her Student Council excuses to class to the highest bidder. Joy Lewis wills her love of elbows to Shelly Duncan. Carol Brown leaves her feminine qualities to Nona Wilson — both of them. Stuart Albee leaves his 10,000 debate evidence cards to any group sponsoring a waste-paper drive. Melissa Charlton leaves a padlock for the doors on the small auditorium to Mrs. Durden. Penny Williamson leaves her position as "Sweetheart of the Homewood Police Department" to Anne Farrell. (what a cop-out!) Amy Bray leaves her unique laugh to anyone weird enough to want it. Steve Brown leaves his "fun-filled" bus trips to Jeff Baughn. Lisa Lynn leaves her fan club to Shirley Slimp. (That is not possible — Lisa is graduating. ed.) Rod Nelson leaves a well-used comb to next year's B.M.O.C. (Beautiful Man On Campus.) Calvin Turner wills his basketball talent to next year's team. Mrs.

Tolbert's classes want to leave Mrs. Tolbert. The Senior football players leave a pair of dark glasses, a cane, a cup of pencils, and a German Shepherd to the "observant" referee at the Erwin game.

Finally, we, the Class of 1973, leave to the Class of 1974 the challenge of making Homewood a better school than we left it. We wish you Godspeed in your efforts.

James Bradford
Class Lawyer

When all had passed in our 9th of 12 years, we were blessed and sent on our way. As was customary in those days of yore, all were sent to the Valley of higher learning. Here, we were accepted as most knaves in their 10th of 12 years. We were simply looked upon as occupying space while our king sat back and spoke not a word. Then during the summer after the 10th and preceding the 11th, the peasants decided to lengthen their locks. And when fall fell, our king frowned heavily upon this decision. At once, a charter was written that all locks be lopped off or else banishment from the kingdom would prevail. This did not come without revolt from the peasants. However, this revolt was suppressed by the Royal Guardsmen, and alas the locks fell, but the apathy rose.

Then with a large sigh of relief, it was announced that all peasants living in the kingdom of Homewood would return there in the year of the 12th, and never return to Valley again. With a return to Homewood, we found a new leader with new policies who smiled upon his nobles of the 12th and said, "This is good." But all was not good for the nobles and peasants because all was not new. Long walks were needed to go from courtyard to courtyard. This was not objected to, however, because while the subjects walked, the tobacco burned. But the tobacco burned freely for only half of the 12th and then we were blessed with a new and majestic castle. All the subjects gazed at this new structure and said, "This is good." And as our final year was in its ides, the nobles and subjects found wondrous things to see, fondle, and break. And it was done. And as it was done, the corridors were filled with laughter, cries, and sorrows. But now as the summer months begin, and the sounds and movements still, the king wishes all of us a bright future. And now it is time this historian shall put down his pen to rest so that you may scan the preceding pages for the detailed history of our 12th year.

Tim Stout
Historian

For those people who like to count, here are the stats for the first Senior Class of Homewood who will graduate after an average of 15,729 hours at school.

There were exactly 43,781,485 announcements made over the intercom of which 41,547,974 began with "At this time." 19,542,718 asked for the mysterious Mr. Lawley (who is he anyway?) to report to the office. 31,461,916 announcements "postponed" or "closed" something indefinitely.

Mike Haltiwanger and Danny Thompson have stomped 7,360,821 beer cans. Don Campbell said "Gaoowawed Daaang" six million, seven hundred thousand, thirty-six times causing the 100% inverse in membership in the S.V.Q.A.A.C.S.H. (Shades Valley Quitters Association for the Advancement of Coach Smith Hating.) In fact, Peter Braasch was voted the Coach Smith Hater of the Year.

The Star-Spangled Girls danced to the same tune eleventy-seven times. Amy Bray laughed 6,714,534 times but nobody was sure what was going on. Speaking of mouths — Melanie Brown stuck her foot in hers seven hundred times before Karen Meshad could beat her to it. James Bradford made 374½ "brad puns" in Miss Legge's room alone. The devious duo of Robert Crump and Marvin Shugerman evoked the wrath of Mrs. Dye upon the Honors class 758,610 times despite the Elbanian flu.

Mrs. Mann, poor soul, received from her 4th period class 127 nervous breakdowns, 1201 sore throats, 8,751 broken pencils, and a gillion reasons to quit. Mr. Norton has heard every complaint 30,550 times and still doesn't think people think.

Gator, Bozo-'Fee, Bobo and the 'Fro himself have broken 63,000 picks between them. George Dreher has seen 3,082 movies waiting for his mustache to sprout. Rod "McKuen" Nelson, the famous John Birch Crusader, has written Patricia 786 love poems and held her hand twice.

The lunchroom's best customer has been Sgt. West who has miraculously enjoyed 73,214,321 free meals while investigating 608 cases of ink overdose. Calvin Turner completely opened his eyes once. David Jones has been to 64 concerts and remembers 2 of them. Abbie Daugherty and Sherrie Vines have been called hippies 5,720,617 times because they've worn the same jeans 4,799 times.

For those who keep score — Birmingham News — 1; New York Times — 0.

Well, that wraps it up with every category standing as an all-time school record. Keep truckin' those blues away, Love,

Paul Dougherty
Statistician

I see it's time to get the old telescope out and look into the stars to see what is in store for the seniors of '73.

First, I see marriages for some of our blessed class. John Tutwiler will marry Kim Cobern and spend the rest of their lives working in the equipment room at the recreation center. Bill Mull and Mary Walker will marry and enjoy a fun-filled honeymoon in the back room of Brown Rideouts where Bill resides as manager.

Kathy King and Bill Masden will marry and have a beautiful mop-head ballerina as their daughter.

Randy Galbraith will follow in the footsteps of Johnny Rodgers as winner of the Heisman Trophy. Now I see a strange, but sad thing — that Randy has just wrestled himself to death.

There will be a few books written. Karen Meshad will author the best seller, How To Be Stupid and Succeed. Michael Webb will write a book that will reach high on the charts, I Was a Teenage Adolescent. Evan McGhee and Mary Lindsay will write a book dedicated to each other entitled I Can't Live Without You. Calvin Turner will also write a great novel if he ever stays awake long enough.

David Clark will become a politician because he can talk for hours and say absolutely nothing. I see Gary Huffman as the future "Mr. Clean" as he is winning the Grand Prize for taking the most lunch trays. Greg Weaver will be crowned "Mr. America" by his lovely escort Don Campbell. I now see little Billy Holmes trying to improve his dives and Mitchell Williams getting arrested for overly seductive announcements.

The stars put Janice Collier in the World Zoo putting on her daily act of eating bananas with her partner Rod Nelson for special effects of sound. They also find Carol Brown left behind as a senior in high school still trying to think up tricks to play on teachers.

Herbert Harvill will be the first man to ever have his beard macramed (by Miss Bartlett) into a sweater to go with Mrs. Mann's go-go boots. Mrs. Linder will dedicate the rest of her unnatural life in further research of her only true love, Geoffrey Chaucer. I also see Mr. Norton still teaching Behavioral Science but he can't seem to get anyone to listen. Ah, come on folks!

The stars are completely covered now, but, I wish to see all the '73 seniors living long, healthy, and productive lives.
